AN ACT

For the relief of Kiyonao Okami.

Kiyonao
Okami.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for the purposes of computing the retirement annuity due Kiyonao Okami, of Dublin, Ireland, under section 821(a) of the Foreign Service Act of 1946 (22 U.S.C. 1076(a)), his promotion to step one of class 3 shall be deemed to have taken effect on May 19, 1968, if he pays any additional contributions within six months after the date of enactment of this Act which may be required by section 811 of such Act (22 U.S.C. 1071) because of the effective date of such promotion. However, he shall not have to pay any such contributions for the time period beginning on the date of his retirement from the Foreign Service through the date on which he receives the first increased annuity payment resulting from such promotion. The said Kiyonao Okami shall be given the option to increase the survivor election he made at retirement up to the maximum amount possible on the increased annuity authorized by this Act. The increased annuity payments resulting from such promotion shall be effective beginning with the first annuity payment after the month in which he makes the additional contribution provided by the first sentence of this Act.
